Our Celebration Weekend last Sunday announced our Diocesan Capital Campaign's gratitude for all whose generosity in prayer and financial support has brought us so close to our $22 million goal. This campaign will secure the financial renewal of our diocese and further its good mission within our 80 parishes and institutions. Pledges and gifts here at St. Mary's were increased by over $28,000. As St. Mary will have a 20% share of all of our pledges and gifts to goal, there will be an increase in funds directly to St Mary from these additional gifts and pledges of over $5,600. For all of your prayers and sacrifices, THANK YOU.

Fr. John

P.S. I wish to thank our Fellowship Commission and parish staff for their good provision of my Installation Service as Pastor of St. Mary's Parish. I am pleased to welcome all in our parish, as at Bishop Amos' request, pastors are called on to celebrate services of installation during the first two months of coming to a new parish assignment. I am pleased that Bishop Amos will be with us for the prayer service shared in Evening Prayer on Sunday, August 15th, at 7 PM. All are welcome. Fr.
